CREATING CHILD-FOCUSED PARENTING PLANS

An Advanced 1-Day Training for Coaches, Mediators and Attorneys****

This program will focus on how to work with parents on some of the most challenging clauses of a deep and durable parenting plan. We will provide attendees with research findings that support various options for children at different ages as well as the legal perspective on specific aspects of custody issues. Trainers will also use demonstrations to help attendees become familiar with specific skills that are useful when parents hit a "hot button" issue or get stuck in impasse.

\* This training is appropriate for novice professionals, but will also be useful for more experienced practitioners who would like to deepen knowledge and polish skills.*

CEU's pending for psychologists and social workers.

For more information, questions, or Grievance Procedures, please contact the CPTI Administrator, Morna Moher, at 571-246-7584 or CPTI.office@gmail.com.

Trainer Biographies

Barbara A. Burr, J.D. is a lawyer specializing in family matters. She received her first Collaborative training in 2006 and has been building her Collaborative practice ever since. She teaches regularly on issues of conflict resolution and is a founding member of the Collaborative Practice Training Institute. Barbara belongs to many organizations that share a dedication to Collaborative matters, including the DC Association of Collaborative Professionals, the Collaborative Dispute Resolution Professionals, located in Montgomery County, Maryland, the Collaborative Project of DC (bringing Collaborative Practice to families of low and modest means), and the Collaborative Practice Center of Greater Washington, where her law firm shares space with other Collaborative professionals who share a dedication to Collaborative matters. Barbara received her Law degree with honors from Harvard Law School and a Bachelor's degree with honors from the University of Washington. She previously received certification as a CPA. Prior to Family Law, Ms. Burr clerked for the Chief Judge of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, then served as a Civil Rights Attorney for close to a dozen years, first with the United States Department of Justice and then with the National Women's Law Center. She is admitted to practice in D.C. and Maryland.
